Dear Sir,-I notice in the Dispatch and

Whig of vesterday my appointment as one of the canvassers for the congressional campaign. I appreciate the compliment implied by my appointment, but must decline it. My business engagements are such that I would not be able to give proper attention to the duties of the position, and my experience as a public speaker would not justify me in the belief that I could do justice to the cause I would be expected to uphold. Although declining the position of canvasser, yet I will do all in my power to secure the election of General Johnston, believing the best interests of our people will be promoted by his election, and that the defeat of the Conservative party in this district would be a public calamity.

LOCAL MATTERS. SATURDAY MARKETS-GOOD SUPPLIES AT REASONABLE RATES .- Writing up the Richmend markets is "like a tale that is told."

It reads after the style of "the old, old story." Saturday there was nothing new offered, and prices remained unchanged. There seemed to be a superabundance of ments and vegetables. The dealers were complaining that the supply exceeded the demand. Fresh meats were held at from 10 to 15 cents per pound for choice beef, pork, and lamb. Corn, beans, peas, potatoes, cabbage, &c., were as cheap as the most parsimonious or poverty-stricken could desire. There was a plentiful supply of country produce at the following rates : Eggs, 20 cents per dozen; 20 to 25 cents per pound. Fruit, with the of the Committee of Publication to his priexception of apples, was scarce; these were plentiful at 20 cents per peck. There were a few sick-looking watermelons, the contemplation of which was almost enough to throw one into a congestive chill; some tough-looking peaches and pears, and a few bunches of sour grapes. Chinqaupins could be had in any quantity at 10 cents per quart, and the little ones bought liberally. The fish market was well supplied at the quotations below: Spots, 25 to 50 cents per dozen for choice; trout, drum- and blue-fish, 10 cents per pound; sheepshead, 124 cents per cents per dozen. Sora were scarce at 75 cents per dozen. When the Dispatch reporter visited the markets they were crowded, and most of the dealers seemed to be driving a thriving business despite their cry of dull times. The usual side-dishes were offered in abundance, and were, as usual, patronized liberally. The good order that characterizes our markets is a source of great gratification. Although generally crowded, noise and confusion are very rare, and disorder and tumult almost unknown.

BUSINESS AT THE CUSTOM-HOUSE-OIL FOR EUROPE AND HOOPS FOR CUBA-THE COAST-WISE TRADE, &c .- Only two vessels cleared from the custom-house for the week ending September 28th. Friday the American brig H. Emma Riley. Coffin master, was cleared for Cardenas, Cuba, with hoops valued at $7,000, shipped by Josiah Harris & Co. On Saturday the Norwegian bark Argo, Andresen master, cleared for Hamburg, Germany, with 4,355 barrels of refined petroleum valued at $23,800, shipped by Meissner, Ackerman & Co., per C. Edward Buck, agent. The total value of the exports for the week was $30,800. The amount reported for the previous week was $49,292.76. No imports received, but five vessels entered and tobacco for Europe. During the week ten vessels arrived coastwise against twenty-two reported last Monday. These hailed from New York, Kennebec, Alexandria, Boston, and Philadelphia; two came light seeking cargoes, and the remainder brought ice, wheat, salt, coal, and assorted merchandise. For the same period eighteen vessels were cleared coastwise-an increase of four over the number reported last week. These vessels were cleared for Philadeiphia, Rappahannock, New York, Newburyport and Wareham (Mass.), Boston, Providence, Washington, Albany, and Norfolk. The cargoes consisted of guano, wood, granite, truck-barrels, and coal-the latter article largely predominating. There are at this time a number of vessels engaged in the coastwise trade loading or discharging. A REVIEW OF THE TOBACCO TRADE-DECREASED TRANSACTIONS .- The market continues very dull and prices low for common grades. Good tobacco is still in demand and commands good prices. The breaks for the week ending Saturday were larger than for the previous week, and comprised 1,006 hogsheads and 35 tierces. The largest break was on Thursday, when it reached 294 hogsheads and 14 tierces; the smallest Saturday-24 bogsheads. There was a falling off in the number of packages offered-the number for the past week being 330; of which 126 were taken in and 204 sold-a falling off in the sales of 90 packages. The largest sale was made Thursday, which was 57 packages. Prices
